

THE OLD SOLDIERS LEAVE THE SCENE

THE THIRD DAY AT CHICKAMAUGA PARK.

Big Parade Participated in by Many Notable Men—Exercises Held in a Tent—Speeches Delivered by Mayor Ochs and Others—Some Business Matters Disposed of Today

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 21.—The third day of the exercises attendant upon the dedication of the battle-field to the nation as a park opened yesterday with a grand civic and military parade. The visiting cabinet officers, governors and their staffs and the various military organizations took part. It brought more people to the city proper than have been here at any one time since the dedicatory exercises began.

The thousands who have been stopping in the taverns along Missionary Ridge, Lookout Mountain and other places in the suburbs were all here. Then thousands came in from the surrounding country, so that the streets and thoroughfares were thronged.

It was a few minutes past 10 o'clock when the parade started. A platoon of police led, followed by a military band. Then came Vice President Stevenson and party in carriages. In the succeeding carriages were Lieutenant General Schofield, Secretary of the Interior Smith, Postmaster General Wilson, Secretary of the Navy Herbert and Attorney General Harmon; United States senators and congressmen, governors and staffs, park commissioners, Tennessee legislators, Mayor Ochs, citizens' committee and invited guests.

Another platoon of police came next and then the United States troops, the Ohio National Guard, Tennessee National Guard, Capital City Guard of Georgia and the Chattanooga School Battalion. General Bate was the first speaker. The formal exercises of the day were held in the big Barnum tent near the government building, and were presided over by Vice President Stevenson. After music by the band Rev. Dr. S. T. Niccolis, of St. Louis, offered prayer. The first address was by George W. Ochs, Mayor of Chattanooga. General Grosvenor followed Mayor Ochs in a speech.

Barnum's tent was filled again last night. There was a gathering there of the survivors of the army of northern Virginia and that portion of the army of the Potomac which fought at Chickamauga. Gen. E. C. Walthall, of Mississippi, presided. Col. W. C. Oates, governor of Alabama, was the first speaker and he was greeted with enthusiastic cheers. Col. J. A. Williamson, of New York, and Col. L. R. Stegman, of New York, also spoke, after which the meeting adjourned.

Vice President Stevenson received the citizens of Chattanooga in the Read house parlors. The vice president and the governors of states stood in the main parlors. The line of handshakers was formed in the hotel office and passed up the stairs to the vice president's reception rooms and to the street again down the woman's stairway. The reception was from 6 to 8 o'clock and there was a steady stream of men and women passing along to touch the vice president's hand during the two hours. The vice president and his son and daughter go from here to Atlanta as soon as they are rested, for a visit and inspection of the exposition.

Governor Altgeld and his staff were not a part of yesterday's parade. They left for home in the morning at 2 o'clock. Governor Matthews of Indiana and his staff will leave for home tonight. So will Governor Rich of Michigan and his staff. Governor McIntyre of Colorado and his party left for Atlanta and so did Governor Holcomb of Nebraska and his staff. There was nothing in the condition of Governor Upham of Wisconsin yesterday to prevent his removal to his home Sunday night, though he was necessarily suffering some pain from the fracture of his leg. With the closing of the meeting of war survivors the big tree days' celebration of the dedication of the Chickamauga and Chattanooga military park is over. Some business matters will be disposed of today at a meeting of army associations.

Women Win a Victory.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 21.—The Methodist conference yesterday voted to admit women to the councils of the church. This vote is the result of a fight that has been waged for years in the church. It is regarded as a great victory for the women, who will appropriately celebrate the achievement throughout the state.

DUN'S REPORT OF THE MARKET

Wheat is Forced Up By The Action Of One Speculator

New York, Sept. 21.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "In spite of gold exports, wheat advanced for some days, in all nearly 2 cents, mainly because a single speculator bought, but on Friday it fell about 1 cent. Corn rose and fell in sympathy with wheat, with as little reason. Western wheat receipts for three weeks of September have been 16,791,660 bushels against 16,491,629 last year, while Atlantic exports, flour included, have been 3,941,693 bushels, against 7,621,986 last year. Good reports of foreign crops, weakness of flour in Minnesota, and large exports of corn from this country all work against a rise in wheat, though a scarcity of contract grades may help a speculative advance.

"Pork products have been reasonably yielding, with prospects of a large corn crop, but before the close had a stronger tone. The cotton market, lifting and falling a fraction each day, alternately, shows no settled tendency, big stocks balancing an undoubted but as yet not definite decrease in yield.

"The surprising increase in production and advance in prices of iron seems to be bringing a natural check, as prices have gone so high as to cause some purchases from Europe, both of pig and finished products, and have also caused a distinct shrinkage in home demand. Lake ore and freights have advanced, and the beginning of a strike of Connellsville workers will tend to prevent reduction in prices, unless soon stopped by the concession of the 11 per cent advance in wages demanded. While the coke production is very large, and contracts for the year are made at $1.30 for furnace coke, which sold early this year below $1 per ton, it is believed that higher wages can be paid without affecting the market for finished products, which has advanced still more. Nearly all mills in operation have orders enough for some months, though a present decrease in the demand is admitted.

"Leather has further advanced, in some qualities, though the rise of 51 per cent for the first half of the year on sixteen qualities has been followed by only a 2 per cent rise since July 1, and this week a break has occurred of 2 cents in union crop. Hides are 8 per cent lower than in July.

"The cotton mills which laid in stocks of cotton below 6 cents are enriched by the advance in material and enabled to make frequent advances in goods, which are sustained. The present demand is dull, but there are no reports of stoppage, and the threatened strike at Fall River does not come. The woolen manufacture is doing well in dress goods and hosiery, but the demand for men's woolsens is much restricted, and a few mills have closed. Sales of wool are smaller than last year, and for three weeks only 17,133,470 pounds, of which 7,718,370 were foreign, against 24,522,400 pounds in 182, of which 7,614,000 were foreign. Prices of foreign wool are so low that purchases for export have been made.

"The failures this week have been 213 in the United States, against 210 last year, and thirty-two in Canada, against forty-eight last year."

Baltimore Baseball Team in Bad Shape.

Baltimore, Md., Sept. 21.—Baltimore people have about given up hope of their team winning the pennant this year. It has still eight games to play and of these must win six. With McMahon in bad shape and McGraw on the sick list the team will be lucky to get half that number. McMahon's forefinger on the pitching hand is rubbed sore on one side and split on the other, while McGraw is laid up with gastric troubles and is so weak as to be unable to move around. Hemming is not in good form, so that the bulk of the work must from this out fall on Clarkson, Hoffer and Esper, and, as the latter is not reliable, little dependence is placed on him.

Profit Sharing to Be Tried.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—President M. E. Ingalls of the Big Four road announces that the directors of the company have determined to establish a plan by which employees shall receive a fair share of the earnings, after fixed charges are paid. A peculiarly shaped black cloud hung over the lake to the northeast at the time.

Adolph Oppenheim, a pawnbroker, testified that the 4th and 10th of April Durrant came to his store and offered a ring for sale. The witness selected a ring from those identified as belonging to Blanche Lamont and said that was the ring offered him by Durrant. EVIDENCE OF A CHANGE.

New York Financiers Think Gold Shipments Will Soon Come.

New York, Sept. 21.—There was an increase of a quarter of a cent in the actual rates for sterling exchange yesterday, but the market was a narrow one and the bidding was not brisk. Demand sterling sold at $4.894. The failure of any one to take out yesterday a large amount of gold for export was regarded as a favorable on the stock market and in financial circles generally, as strong evidence that the predictions made by bankers and others, that gold shipments are over for this season were substantially correct, and that commercial bills, particularly cotton bills, are at last beginning to come forward in some volume.

An adjournment will then be taken for a week on account of the fair, and when the jury re-assembles it will devote its time exclusively to the boodle investigation.

SCHOOL BOARD TALK OF ROOM

Crowded Building the Reason for Holding a Special Meeting.

The school board held a special meeting last night to discuss ways and means of providing more room in the Jefferson and Webster schools, both of which are crowded for room in certain grades. Some pupils that should attend the Jefferson school and reside on North Bluff and North Main streets, are obliged to attend the Washington school in the First ward, so the building committee was instructed to fit up the north recitation room in the old high school building to accommodate the overflow from the seventh grade. The matter of fitting up the third floor of the Lincoln building for the accommodation of the overflow from the Webster building was also discussed and referred to a committee for investigation. A number of bills were then allowed, the matter of dedicating the new high school was left to the building committee, the superintendent's report was left in the hands of the president, and there being no other business, adjournment followed.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE LEAF CROP

The retail trade remains but slightly changed from that of conditions prevailing for the past two months.

With the exception of here and there a small patch of late tobacco, the '95 crop is now in the shed.

LOCAL market conditions remain unchanged, with perhaps a slightly increased activity on the part of a few packers.

FREQUENT rains and hot weather have had a very beneficial effect upon the hanging tobacco, and it is curing out thin and glossy, with a good stretch.

WHILE not as spready as some years, the leaf is of fair size, free from the ravages of green worms, grasshoppers and fleas, and is curing out in a very satisfactory manner.

AMONG the transactions reported are 170 cases of '92 and 33 cases of '93 purchased by J. L. & M. F. Green; 125 cases '92 sold by S. B. Hedges and 11 cases '91 sold by T. E. Welsh.

WHILE there is an apparently good demand for leaf of the better grades among a half dozen packers, the tardy sale of accumulated stocks in the warehouse serves to keep prices down to the old time level.

DURING the past three weeks the weather has been favorable in the extreme for the growing crop and what was thought to be one of the poorest crops ever grown in the state has finally turned out to be one above the average of the past three years, says the Janesville Leaf.

NEW RAILROAD IN THE COUNTY

Chicago & Lake Superior Line May Come South of Edgerton.

Rock county may get a new railroad line. A meeting of the stockholders and directors of the Chicago & Lake Superior railroad was held in Cambridge and E. J. Foster was elected president. A contract was made and signed with Thomas Appleton & Company, of Chicago, for the building and equipping of the first fourteen miles of the road. M. W. McGrath, who is a member of the firm of contractors, is in the field and expects to build at least twenty-five miles of this road before cold weather sets in. At present the corps of surveyors are running a survey, taking levels and making profiles from Cambridge to Fort Atkinson. It is also said that a survey will be made south of Edgerton and perhaps other points, just as soon as they complete the work to Fort Atkinson.

MAIDENHOOD

The Young Girl's Life a Flowing Brook.

Its Course Obstructed by Many Obstacles.

Some Timely Suggestions Regarding a Serious Subject.

"Brooks make rivers, rivers run to seas," sings the poet Dryden in his Worship of Aesculapius, the first known physician. The poet little thought as he penned his verse in praise of the ancient practitioner, how aptly his beautiful line would apply to the life of a woman. The chattering brook as it flows to merge itself in the larger stream represents the careless, unthinking young girl. The wild and turbulent stream, sometimes flowing smoothly, then dashing over rocks and down into unbroken depths, at last becoming a mighty river, bearing ships upon its bosom, is the woman with her broadening and deepening possibilities.

But how many girls "Standing with reluctant feet Where the brook and river meet Womanhood and childhood meet."

are at this time of their lives the objects of much solicitude to their parents. The young girl is sad, does not want company, has palpitation of the heart after exertion, dyspepsia, constipation, pains in the head and limbs and along the spine, and her face is pale with a greenish tinge. She is the victim of green sickness. This is a case in which the nervous system is impaired and the blood is impoverished. A good tonic is needed to bring her back to health and strength, and parents should be careful to choose the best remedy. Here is what Mrs. Homer Lard, of 515 Allen Street, Springfield, Mass., selected for her seventeen-year old daughter Mary, with an account of its marvelous results:

Mrs. Lard says: "About two years ago my daughter became so nervous that I had to take her out of school. Her condition caused grave apprehension. She lost in flesh; was possessed with a nervous thirst and clutched everything on which she laid her hands, with the grip of a person in the throes of death. Worse than all, she was not only unable to sleep herself, but her restlessness would keep the other members of our family awake. She grew worse rapidly, and we finally went to a physician, but the remedies he prescribed did her no good; on the contrary, Mary thought they made her worse.

"The old saying of a 'drowning man clutching at a straw,' came to our minds, and remembering that I had read of some wonderful cures made by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I decided to try it. I must say that the effect was magical, and results were apparent after the first bottle had been used. My daughter slept that night for the first time in months, and you can believe that to us it was like a ray of sunshine from a cloudy sky. Her condition improved steadily, and she was able to resume her studies.

"Piano practice formerly had a peculiarly bad effect upon her, but she now practices regularly without becoming nervous. Two years ago we feared that Mary had reached her growth, but since taking Dr. Greene's Nervura her nervousness has been so greatly dispelled that she has grown considerably and regained the flesh she had lost."

It is wonderful what benefit this young girl derived in so short a time from Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great blood and nerve remedy. If you have a daughter who is suffering in such a manner, can you doubt that this grand medicine is just what she needs? You can make no mistake in giving her this great blood and nerve remedy, for it is the discovery of a noted and experienced physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York City. He not only positively promises a good effect from the medicine, and allows all who wish to consult him free of charge, either personally or by letter, so that in using his remedy you make him your physician and receive the benefit of his great skill.

GOOD WORD FOR DR. WHITING.

The Milton Junction News Comments on The Recent Election.

The Milton Junction News has the following to say regarding Dr. Whiting's election to the office of surgeon-general of the G. A. R.:

"The unanimous selection of Dr. J. B. Whiting, of Janesville, to the surgeon-generalship of the Grand Army of the Republic of the United States at the annual encampment at Louisville, is a high honor to Rock county. A gallant soldier in the dark days of the rebellion, an eminent practitioner and a sturdy gentleman, he will bear the duties of his position with honor to the Grand Army and himself.

NEW DYNAMO HOUSE AND 3500 LIGHTS

MONTEREY ELECTRIC LIGHT PLANT ABANDONED.

Move Made By the Bower City Concern to Double Its Capacity—Proposition Made to Illuminate the School For the Blind—Main Street Power House.

In two more days the work of moving the Bower city Electric Light Co.'s plant from Monterey to Main street, will begin.

New machinery has been bought. Water power has been secured. A building waits.

As soon as workmen can do their part the capacity of Janesville's incandescent plant will be increased from 1200 to 3500 lamps.

The building to be occupied is the one now used by M. D. Taylor as a machine shop. Mr. Taylor has signed the contract to vacate within sixty days, but work will not be delayed as long as that. Monday a crew will begin setting the 200 horse power boiler that Manager W. F. Hayes bought last week in Chicago. The boiler will stand in what is now the covered passage-way between the two halves of the building. This passage-way will be enclosed, and will serve as the boiler and fuel room.

Besides a boiler, Manager Hayes bought a two hundred horse power engine and four dynamos. To these will be added the dynamos now at Monterey, the Monterey water power being sold, and the Monterey trunk line taken down. The combined plants will have a capacity of 3,000 or 3,500 lights while the present limit is 1,200.

Light For Blind Children.

"We begun work on setting the boiler Monday," said Manager Hayes today. "It is impossible to tell, though, when we will be running. Will we sell our Monterey water? Yes, unless a contract is made for lighting the school for the blind as is now proposed. You see, the expense of lighting the city with a law tension current from Monterey is too great. The waste is fully 35 per cent. In our new quarters it will be but 10 per cent. Steam more expensive? Oh, will have water, too. We get 500 inches of water at the Taylor place and we have only 800 at Monterey. The Taylor water is good nine months in the year and will be used to supplement the steam. We expect to more than double our service. We are operating 1,200 lights now—have 1500 wired up but can't run them all. In our new quarters we can run from 3,000 to $3,500."

Before the finished fruit come bud and blossom. Bud grows into blossom and blossom into fruit. And so girlhood merges into womanhood and the woman into motherhood.

The two most critical times in a woman's life are the times which make the girl a woman, and the woman a mother. At these times, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is of incalculable value. It strengthens and invigorates the organs distinctly feminine, promotes regularity of the functions, allays irritation and inflammation, checks unnatural, exhausting drains, and puts the whole delicate organism into perfect condition. Almost all the ills of womanhood are traceable to some form of what is known as "female complaint." There are not three cases in a hundred of woman's peculiar diseases that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will not cure.

THREE BAD FEATURES.

Exports small; revenues insufficient, but imports increasing steadily. There is the situation in a nutshell. How much more will it take to convince Mr. Cleveland that the revenue laws need revision? Since January 1 the imports of dry goods and general merchandise have been $61,000,000 more than in the corresponding time last year and the inflow continues without abatement. The tardy and unpromising export movement is another discouraging feature of the trade situation, and, while it is reasonably to be expected that there will be an improvement, there is no apparent warrant for believing that it will be sufficient to enable us to settle the heavy indebtedness already contracted through excessive importations without large exports of gold. It seems very probable that the next two weeks will bring important developments affecting the immediate future of the national treasury. If within that time there is not a very decided improvement in exports there is reason to think that the bond syndicate, notwithstanding the assurance it has given to the contrary, will abandon the task of protecting the gold reserve. In that event there can be very little doubt that the treasury gold would be depleted so rapidly as to compel another issue of bonds.

A GOLDEN BUBBLE

It is hard to conceive from this distance of the gold fever that pervades London. The city is putting $20,000,000 a month into its mining speculation, though the field for it is not as good as exists in plain sight on our Pacific coast. Of course the bubble will burst some day, but at present it is the biggest and most iridescent specimen ever known in gold mining. South Africa and Australia are in about equal favor with the investors. The miners in both countries are working on superficial deposits, and there is as yet no evidence that the quartz veins are equal in number, size or richness to those of California. The veins in South Africa are small and irregular, difficult to reach and expensive to work, and Australia has no such great quartz lodes as are found in California.

BOSSSES OUT OF FAVOR.

They are after the bosses down east. A prominent democratic lawyer in Baltimore says he intends to vote the republican ticket this fall because he does not believe in half-way measures, nor in giving the ring a chance to vote his name. If all Maryland democrats are as intelligent as this one, the Gorman machine will be factually smashed.

This week, the weather men tell us, was not only the hottest of the year relatively, but the hottest absolutely. The fact may comfort those uneasy mortals who were afraid their feelings were running away with their judgment in weather estimates.

While Oshkosh was telegraphing wildly for Fond du Lac and Appleton hose companies during the big fire Wednesday, an Oshkosh hose company was lying idle in the Algoma street station under the "reserve" rule. There is such a thing as too much red tape sometimes.

New York republicans have plenty of planks to fight on if that was what they wanted when they went into the platform building job. That state will never be at rest until Platt and Miller get their hands out of each other's hair.

Seven Chinese heads have been lopped off, and the dispatches say "respect for American missionaries has gone up several degrees." Thus the gospel of "good will on earth and peace to all men," goes triumphantly on.

It will be a long time before Wisconsin gets over the influence of democratic rule. Reer at the state fair, the Waupaca train robbery and low water in Fox river are all attributed to it by impartial observers.

Nobody says a word about William F. Vilas since people began to ask for "a good western democrat." Is the accent on the "good" what worries our distinguished pine land baron?

Business doesn't pick up in Janesville the way trade reports indicate that it has down east. But wait until the fall weather sets in. There's a good time coming.

The city has bought $3,600 worth of roadmaking machinery within the last month. As yet this machinery stands idle. Why was it bought if there was no work for it?

There are a good many temperate, industrious and withal public-spirited men in the state, who are quite as much interested in the state fair as the Milwaukee brewers.

Working together the aldermen ventured to buy a street roller and one crusher but not one of the alone seems brave enough to lay out any work.

Politics is playing a large part in state fair matters. That may explain why beer was thought necessary.

If the refining influence of the gentle "co-ed" cannot save lawless Beloit nothing can.

Alabama. Every sentiment expressed in the play Alabama is on an exalted plane, in keeping with its brilliant literary character and the superior excellence and ability of the actors. The famous actor, Frank C. Bangs of "Silver King" and Jim, the Penmen" fame will be seen again as Col. Preston, Clement Bainbridge for whom Mr. Thomas wrote the part of Captain Davenport will also appear and pretty Ethel Irving still plays Carey Preston. Don't fail to see Alabama at the Myers Grand this evening.

Will Be a Big Fair.

The Walworth county fair at Elkhorn has always been in previous years the best attended fair given in this part of the country and the outlook for this season's crowd is very favorable. Better exhibits and better races will make it a better fair than ever. From September 24 to September 27 are the dates of the meeting.

A RELIABLE PILE CURE.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is the safest and surest pile cure on the market, because it contains no mineral poisons nor opium nor cocaine, but can be used with absolute safety and certainty of cure.

Many physicians are now using the Pyramid Pile Cure in place of surgical operations, being painless, convenient to use, and the patient can attend to his daily occupation while the cure is being made, as it is used at night and no additional treatment is necessary.

Dr. Wharton says the Pyramid Pile Cure will prove a blessing to mankind, when it is remembered that heretofore a surgical operation was considered the only cure with all its danger to life, intense pain and an expense of from ten to one hundred dollars, to say nothing of the possible return of the trouble. The Pyramid Pile Cure is sold by druggists at 50 Cents and $1.00 and does the work quickly and safely.

A book on cause and cure of piles will be mailed free by addressing Pyramid Co., Albion, Mich.

Scores A Big Success.

Ladies Appreciate and Approve Our Course. Customers Pleased. Sales Increased and All Hands Satisfied.

We were sure we were right--theoretically. Now it has been proved--demonstrated without a doubt. Big prices are certainly barriers to large sales. By shaving off the sharp edges of our Selling figures and yet maintaining the high standard our Goods we have struck a responsive chord in the heart of nearly every buyer of Dry Goods in Rock County. A lady can find in our store almost anything she wants in the Dry Goods line. We take all objections to price out of her mouth. We show her what she will like--not what we want to sell.

Our enthusiasm, which is pardonable, is based on facts. We are not advertising to see our name in in print. We want to tell you something that will be to your profit, also to ours. That something is, that we have a line of fall and winter dry goods, which are particularly fit to meet the demands of all classes. We know you are interested in buying to the best advantage. You are not so firmly wedded to any store that you cannot look goods elsewhere. All we want is a little of your attention, just a little, your good judgment will do the rest.

COUNTING THE CASH A JANESVILLE JOB

HOW BOWER CITY MEN WORK IN MILWAUKEE.

State Fair Ticket Selling System
This Year Pronounced Almost Perfect—Deposits Made Twice a Day—Four Armed Guards Accompany the Money to the Bank.

The way that crew of Janesville ticket sellers handle money at the state fair interests Milwaukee people greatly. When M. R. Doyon succeeded Cyrus Miner as treasurer of the society he did it on condition that the Janesville boys would stay by him. Consequently Edwin Fifield, Frank Farnsworth, H. D. Murdock, C. J. Myhr, C. B. Conrad, I. C. Brownell, E. A. Hyde, and A. C. Jenkins have been at work all week and up to last night had handled $29,210.35.

A thoughtless person would think this was no job at all and the ease with which the boys do it might confirm him in the opinion, but a trial at it would soon convince him of his error. In the old days the cash used to be dumped promiscuously into a big red box, to be lugged off to town, where a lot of clerks spent the whole night sorting and counting it, and mistakes without end would occur, but there is nothing of that sort this year.

Dividing the Staff.

A. C. Jenkins and H. D. Murdock are stationed in Treasurer Doyon's office and are his right and left bowlers. The rest of the boys have charge of the various gates. The system this year works perfectly. It enables the money to be counted quickly, and makes mistakes well nigh impossible. Collections are made twice a day at the gates, two deposits are made, and by 8 o'clock in the evening all the money is in the bank and checked up.

Each gate-tender has a book in which he is charged each day with the tickets given to him. At noon, when the first collection is made, he is credited with the amount he pays in, and then at night he is credited with the tickets he surrenders. The difference between the debit and credit side must be the amount of cash due from him. He has his cash in a canvas bag and he pours it out on a table where Mr. Doyon sits. He quickly counts it to see if it balances the gatekeeper's account and tallies with his count, which it usually does. Then he passes into an inner room where Mr. Murdock and Mr. Jenkins are found at work. The latter sorts it and gets it into shape for depositing it in the bank, while the former takes care of the ticket account. Jenkins' work makes a third count of the work.

Four Armed Guards.

The $1 bills are put up in packages of $50 and the $5's, $10's and $20's in packages of $500. The silver dollars are piled in $20 stacks, the halves in $10 stacks and the quarters in $5 stacks. The stacks are arranged in squares, making a certain number each way, so that the amount in each square can be told in a glance. When it has all been counted it is carefully wrapped up and placed in bags on which are tags marked with the amounts put into the bags. The bags filled almost to bursting, the pieces of silver and stacks of bills look tempting, but some ugly looking revolvers lying around promiscuously make it comparatively easy to resist temptation.

It is astonishing how many silver dollars and $1 bills there are in circulation. The great bulk of the money taken in is of that kind. The money is taken to the bank in a carriage, in which are a couple of armed messengers and a couple of policemen follow after it in another carriage to be on hand if there should be any attempt to rob the messengers. The money is deposited in the National Exchange bank and the bank people say that it comes in such fine shape that there can be no mistakes and the accounts tally to a cent every time.

MUD HENS PLENTY; DUCKS SCARCE

The Latter Are Hard To Kill at Koshkonong These Days.

The mud hens have arrived at Lake Koshkonong and so have the mud hen hunters. The continual bang of the shot gun on the lake tells the tale that the hen is gradually taking the place of the duck as a game bird. The wild duck is becoming scarcer every year, and there are very few being killed this fall. The few that are killed are bagged by skilled hunters, who know where to find them.

J. CRALL SUED AGAIN BY FAIR MANAGERS

NOW THEY CHARGE HIM WITH TRESPASSING.

The Warrant Was Issued by Judge Phelps This Morning Although The First Case Has Not Yet Been Decided—Crall May Sue Special Officer Mabie.

Time was called for the second round of the Rock-County-Agricultural-Society-Joshua-Crall finish fight this morning. Judge Phelps, of the municipal court, was chosen as referee; Clerk W. F. Williams was named as time keeper; Sutherland & Nolan are Crall's seconds while Smith & Pierce will be in the agricultural society's corner. Ex-Sheriff J. L. Bear, chief of the fair police, is the bottle holder, and after arranging the preliminaries it was decided to pitch the ring in the municipal court, Monday morning, at 9 o'clock.

The first round in the engagement was begun several days ago, in a civil action against Mr. Crall, under the state law making it an offense punishable by a fine of $50, to enter the inclosure of any fair or agricultural society, without first obtaining the legal right to do so by buying a ticket. It was charged that Mr. Crall had entered the fair grounds on September 13 contrary to this statute, and the case was begun on those lines.

Charge Him With Trespass.

This morning the case took a new turn. The action to collect the fine as above stated, has not yet been passed upon, but in the meantime the agricultural society maintained its palms, so to speak, and got "a new hold," by beginning a second action against Mr. Crall. A complaint was filed with Clerk Williams this morning charging that Mr. Crall not only entered the grounds without lawful right as was set forth in the complaint in former action, but in so doing he did, by force, and without license break and enter the society's enclosure, thereby trespassing on the real estate of the said society and damage to the extent of $25. Thus it will be seen, they will endeavor to make out a case of trespass in addition to collecting the aforementioned $50 fine.

The third round, it is said, will consist of another case, in which Mr. Crall will be the plaintiff, and Special Officer Oscar Mabie, with whom Mr. Crall had the ruction, will be the defendant, but as yet no steps of this kind have been taken.

MORE CHILDREN ILL WITH DIPHTHERIA

THREE NEW CASES DEVELOPED THIS MORNING.

One Is In The Family of August Krause Whose Son Died Yesterday—Another in the Family of Herman Seainn and the Third at Herman Lenz's Home—All Mild Cases.

Three new cases of diphtheria developed in the towns of Center and Janesville this morning. The victims are:

KATRINA KRUSE, [or Crow] aged five years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Kruse, of the town of Janesville, and sister of the boy who died yesterday.

HADDIE SKAINN, aged nine years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Seainn, of the town of Janesville.

HATTIE LENZ, six years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lenz, of the town of Center.

All these cases are of a mild type, but are genuine diphtheria. The Seainn family are the nearest neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Kruse, or Crow as the name was at first given, whose child died yesterday. The town board are much stirred up over the presence of the disease, and yesterday sent Dr. Edden to see the Lenz girl, who lives eight miles from the Kruse home. There are twelve children in the three families, all of whom are supposed to have been exposed to the disease. There is considerable excitement in the neighborhood, although all precautions have been taken.

USE PURE DRUGS

A Keen Scheme.

"These weddings are simply ruinous," complained Givem. "Doggone the man who invented wedding presents anyway."

"You ought to make yourself more popular among the unmarried girls," advised Mashem. "Then you could send them, as each married, the present she'd prefer."

"What!" exclaimed Givem, incredulously. "Why, good heavens, if I consulted their tastes I'd start for the poorhouse to-morrow."

"No, you wouldn't, but you would send to each the letters she'd written to you while you were engaged to her," explained Mashem, "and that would be most satisfactory to her and cheapest for you."—Truth.

Rough on the Monkey.

One of the professors of the University of Texas was engaged in explaining the Darwinian theory to his class, when he observed that they were not paying proper attention.

"Gentlemen," said the professor, "when I am endeavoring to explain to you the peculiarities of the monkey I wish you would look right at me."—Texas Siftings.

Her Crumb of Comfort.

"What are you writing, James?" she asked as she critically examined her bicycle tire.

"A novel of home life, dear," was the husband's meek response.

"Never mind," she said, soothingly, "I know it's novel to you now, but all that will wear off in time."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Decline of a Family Name.

"Too bad how that man's family has gone down in the social scale, isn't it?"

"I don't know their history. Do you?"

"Yes. His father kept a livery stable."

"And he?"

"He's a member of the Illinois legislature."—Chicago Times-Herald.

And Yet She Lost It.

"Robbed! Why, how did that happen?"

"Why, I had $537 that I'd been saving up for ten years in a teapot on the mantel, and—"

"But, great Scott, madam, why didn't you put it into a bank?"

"Stranger, them banks ain't safe."—N. Y. Recorder.

Encouraging Comparison.

"Miss—er, I beg pardon—Mrs. Wrynkle—"

"You were first right, Mr. Oldboy. I am not yet plucked from the parent stem."

"Take courage, miss. You know that Naomi, daughter of Enoch, was five hundred and eighty years old when she married."—Boston Herald.

A Windham county (Conn.) man, who rounded out 75 years of his life without going more than twenty miles from his birthplace, was one day answering the questions of a distinguished western visitor, who had come on to the old farm from far beyond the Mississippi valley to learn of the childhood of his father and mother, who were born in Windham county. The old native gave the westerner just the details the latter was seeking.

"And I suppose you have always lived around here," said the man from beyond the Mississippi.

"Oh, no," replied the native, "I was born two miles from here."

VARIOUS NOTES.

Ostrich Feathers—Jackets For Winter.
Yokes Should Be Deep.

In England the Society For the Protection of Birds still wages its humane war against the craze for decorating hats and bonnets with plumage of every description, including whole birds. Ostrich feathers, which are never old fashioned and are really the most beautiful of all, are not included in the list of forbidden trimmings, since neither slaughter nor cruelty is necessary in order to obtain them.

Flowered fabrics, so much worn during the summer, promise to be equally fashionable for dress gowns this fall and winter. Jackets are to be much worn, and although the various styles are less diverse than those of gowns there will still be a range of choice sufficiently wide, and the new models are very attractive.

Velvet mervilleux and plush broadened and shaded are among the rich winter materials.

Now that yokes are so much worn it is well for the home dressmaker to remember that a deep yoke is more becoming than a narrow one. If it is short in front, it looks awkward, and if it is short behind it gives a round shouldered effect.

Capes of all kinds are still to the fore and will remain there of necessity until sleeves have made a marked decrease in size. They are both plain and highly elaborate and are decorated in every conceivable way. Capes of broadcloth have a cut out pattern around the edge, under which lace is set. If there are seams, these are covered with bands of trimming. A flaring collar or a thick ruche usually finishes the neck, the ruche being of ribbon, silk or heavy net.

An illustration is given of an autumn toilet of ribbed wool of a tobacco brown. The skirt is plain in front, but forms godets at the back. On either side of the tablier and over the hips it is cut out in deep points to show emerald green velvet, upon which it is buttoned by silver buttons. The bodice is of emerald velvet embroidered with gold and is widely slashed to show a chemise of rose crepon. The draped collar of rose crepon is adorned with choux. A pointed belt of velvet embroidered with gold encircles the waist. The gigot sleeves of tobacco brown wool are buttoned by silver buttons up to the elbow over points of emerald velvet. With this gown is worn a hat of tobacco brown felt trimmed with pink flowers and green and rose changeable taffeta.

DRESS NOTES.

Disadvantages of the Silken Goods as Against the Wool.

Silk crepons and those of mixed silk and wool have their disadvantages, after all, which may be a satisfactory piece of information to women who have not been able to afford these expensive goods, but have put up with plain wool ones or those with mohair stripes. The silk crepons fray out in loops and fuzzy ends after a little wear, presenting very much the appearance of the worsted gown of a little girl who persists in holding the cat while it "makes head," every lift of pussy's hooked claws pulling up a loop of the goods. The mohair striped crepons have all the gloss of silk and are cheaper and far more durable. Plaids and checks still hold their own and will probably last through the winter. The small shepherd's plaids are very neat for autumn gowns and lend themselves well to tailor made styles.

Much as has been said against the bouffant style of dress lately fashionable and still prevailing, it is one of the most generally becoming modes there are. Most styles of dress suit but one or two sorts of women, but this suits nearly everybody except the abnormally fat. It covers a multitude of deficiencies of figure, and by its voluminous detail and dainty accessories distracts attention from unpleasing features. Now that plain bodices, close and simple, are again to be worn, the kindness of the filled and furbelowed corsege will be appreciated and regretted. Flat trimmings, buttons and stitching, neat as they are, become only a graceful and well rounded figure and a face that can rely upon its own charms to produce a good effect.

A picture is given of a street costume for a girl 16 years old. The skirt is of beige fancy wool goods with a broche design in chestnut and white. The bodice is of chestnut surah mervilleux, gathered to a plaited yoke and confined at the waist by a belt of chestnut silk. The neck is finished with a draped collar of the same goods. The Henri II cape is composed of chestnut cloth and has a triple collar and revers of white cloth embroidered with chestnut. A choux of chestnut velvet is placed at each side.

GRAND HAT OPENING!

—AT—

THURSDAY, FRIDAY, & SATURDAY

ZIEGLER'S

THURSDAY, FRIDAY & SATURDAY

We Show The . . OLIVER STIFF HATS!

It is well known to the most of us that the Miller, Knox, Dunlap and Youman agencies are distributed in all the principal cities throughout the United States. All these well known makes of hats retail at $5.00 each and at no less. The well dressed man always likes the best and correct shapes, but oftentimes dislikes to pay $5.00 for a hat, that can only be worn about three months, or one season, when a new shape comes out. In the OLIVER we have provided for those who want absolutely the correct shape at a nominal price. We have selected two popular blocks which seem to be the most in favor in the western cities--the Dunlap and Knox. As an introduction the Oliver is made an exact duplicate of the Dunlap and the Knox. The trimmings are identical, sweat and hat bands positively the same as the original, block or shape absolutely the correct one. The quality although not quite as fine is the same stock as used in all the hats usually sold in hat departments at $3.50 and by exclusive hatters in the city at $4.00.

The OLIVER We Furnish At $3.00.

And is sold with the positive guarantee that it is the correct shape and will give satisfaction to the wearer or money refunded. Why shouldn't you wear the proper block and save the extra $2.00. There are many hats on the market that are called the precise shapes of the Knox, Dunlap, etc., but were a comparison to be made with the original would be found to be different materially. The Oliver is an exact duplicate. We shall be pleased to show it to you. Grand Opening, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.
